Complimenting him is the best approach to get the boy you get a kick out of the chance to like you back. Be that as it may, do it once in a while. It will keep the kid on his toes, and make him feel more uncommon. Compliment him just in the event that you discover something particular.

How to Get the Boy You Like to Like You Back?

Once you've watched the Back To The Future movies a few times, you start noticing all the cool little details hidden in them -- like how Marty's reckless driving renamed a mall, or how Doc Brown's son probably peed himself in the last scene. Apparently, the filmmakers knew nerds would still be obsessing over their work 30 years in the future, so they made sure to pack the trilogy with as many ...
